Presentation of the

2012 ALLAN BORDER MEDAL

THE EVENT

Live on Fox Sports, with a replay on the Nine Network, this exclusive presentation will be celebrated with a black-tie function in Palladium at Crown in Melbourne.

This is Australian cricket's 'night of nights' and will feature all current players, former Test captains, cricketing legends plus special guest appearances.

The event is one of the highlights of the Australian cricket calendar and this year will recount Australia's performances during the ICC Cricket World Cup, tours of Sri Lanka and South Africa and the Summer of cricket against the might of India, New Zealand and Sri Lanka.

Now in its thirteenth year, the Allan Border Medal is considered the highest individual honour in Australian cricket.

The night features the induction of a cricket legend or legends into the Hall of Fame, plus annual awards including:

- Allan Border Medal
- Test Player of the Year
- One-Day Player of the Year
- State Player of the Year
- International Twenty20 Player of the Year
- Bradman Young Cricketer of the Year
- International Women's Cricketer of the Year

The telecast is also followed by the official Crown Lager Allan Border Medal after party.

CORPORATE OPPORTUNITY

A limited number of tickets are available for purchase to this special VIP event, which include:

- Entry ticketing to the Allan Border Medal Dinner
- Pre-dinner drinks from 6.00pm
- Three course dinner
- Crown Lager and Wolf Blass wines served throughout the evening
- Access to the official after party
- Event program and special gift for each guest

ALLAN BORDER MEDAL

The Medal bears the name of Allan Border, one of Australia's greatest cricketing icons.

It recognises the most outstanding Australian cricketer of the past season. Votes are kept strictly confidential and are counted and audited by PricewaterhouseCoopers.
