

2019-20 BOUNDARY SOCIAL DECK TERMS & CONDITIONS

These terms apply to Customers who purchase a ticket for or enter the Boundary Social Deck area (Customers). These terms apply in addition to the Cricket Australia Ticket and Entry Conditions and any other terms applicable to the Boundary Social Deck.

1. Boundary Social Deck may be exposed to poor weather:

Customers acknowledge that the Boundary Social Deck is located outdoors on a raised platform with limited shelter and may be exposed to poor weather conditions.

2. No outside food or drink

Only food and drink items purchased from within the Venue may be consumed in the Boundary Social Deck. Customers are not permitted to bring food or drink items from outside the Venue into the Boundary Social Deck. Staff may request any food or drink items brought to the Boundary Social Deck from outside the Venue to be disposed of or consumed prior to entry.

3. Dress code

The minimum standard dress to enter the Boundary Social Deck is neat casual. Cricket Australia reserves the right to refuse entry to any person that Cricket Australia considers (in its sole discretion) is unsuitably attired. For the avoidance of doubt, the following attire will be considered unsuitable for entry into the Boundary Social Deck:

- a) Torn or ripped clothing;
- b) Custom printed t-shirts or other customer printed clothing; or
- c) Clothing displaying racist or similarly inappropriate or offensive messages.
